Overview
The 1.5-credit Professional Communication: Presenting course focuses on presenting complex topics using plain language in professional settings. Key topics include selecting and organizing content, developing audience-centered visual aids, incorporating storytelling, projecting a professional image, and managing Q & A. This course requires a strong command of English. The course does not have a mid-term or a final exam.

Over the course of the term you will learn how to:

- Plan/organize presentations with the target audience in mind (segmenting diverse audiences)
- Select content
- Design visual aids
- Demonstrate confidence through executive presence
- Manage presentation anxiety
- Handle Q & A
